Keepin' in touch

Hey Brian, turn around so we can see your better half

A woman's work is never done

Let your fingers do the walking

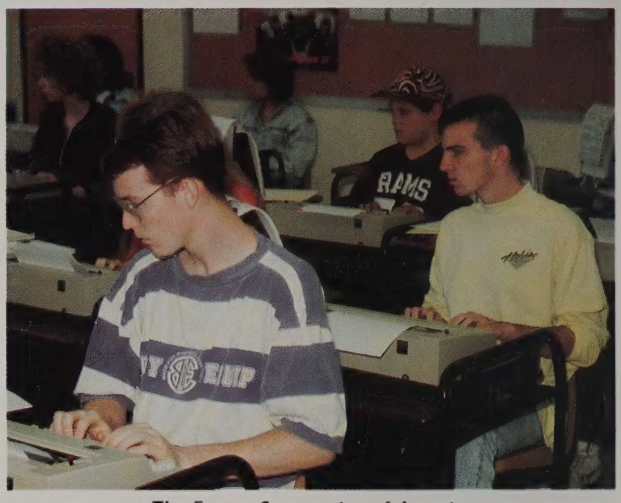
A quiet day at third lunch

So what if we're late again, it's only Prouty's class.

I'd rather be at McDonald's

What are you looking at!?

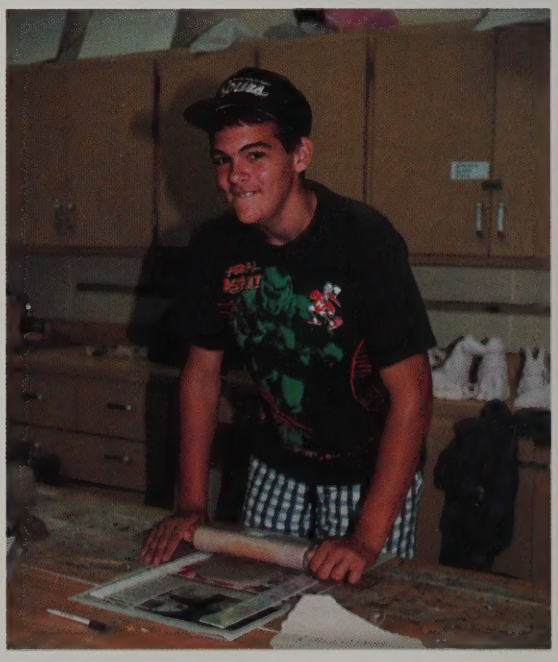
Help! I can't find my weight gain!



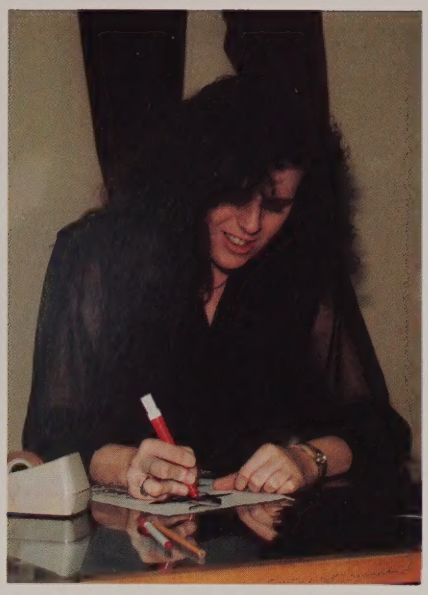
The Future Secretaries of America

Roll it, and pat it, and mark it with a B.

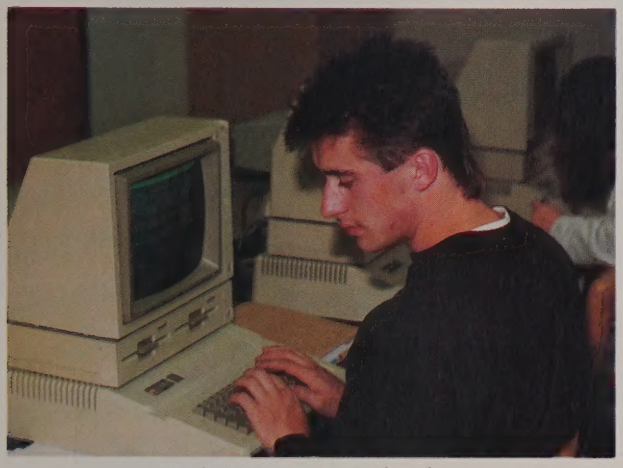
I wonder when we start printing money.



Last minute studying



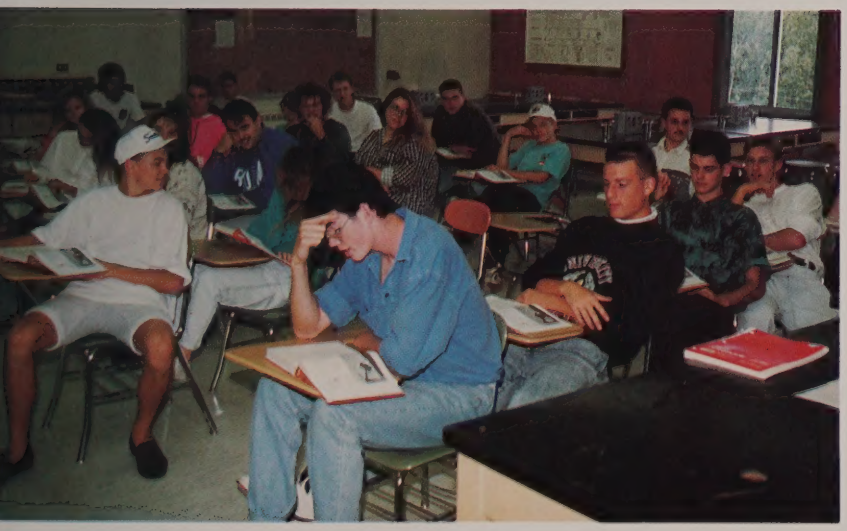
I wish I could stay inside the lines.



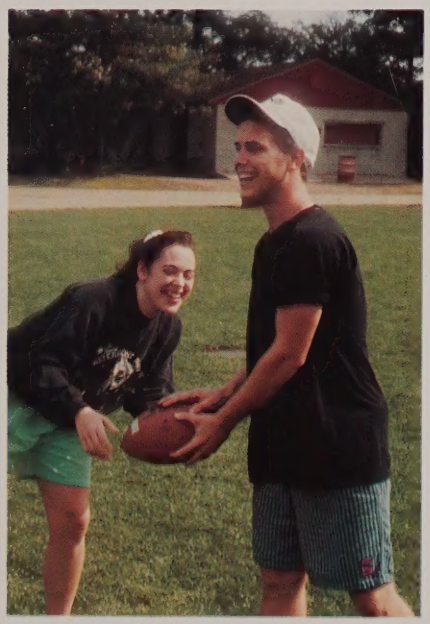
Don't fall asleep at the keys!

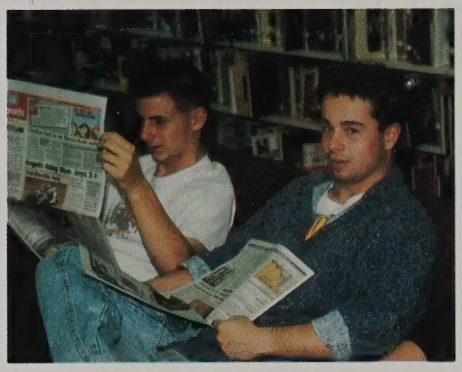
Someone's voice cracked

No matter how hard I study, I know I'm going to fail.



You can't be serious. A girl playing football?

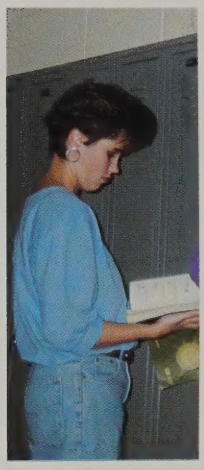




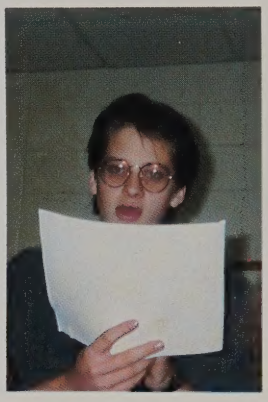
Get serious Jay, you don't know how to read!

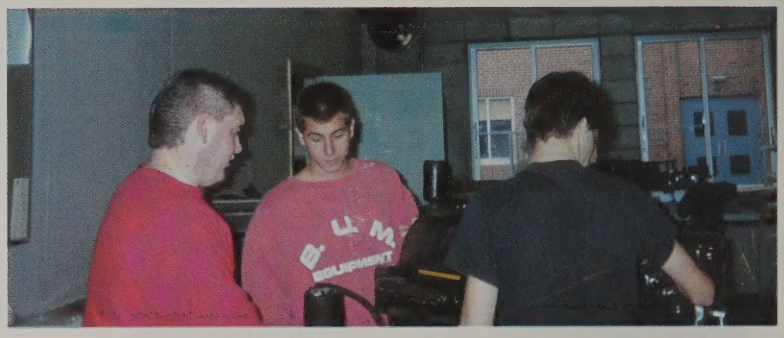
Eat your heart out Julia!

▼I'm sure I did my Accounting homework



Jingle bells . . .





Fix it guys, don't break it!

Two of a kind

Oops! I forgot to give Chris her homework back!

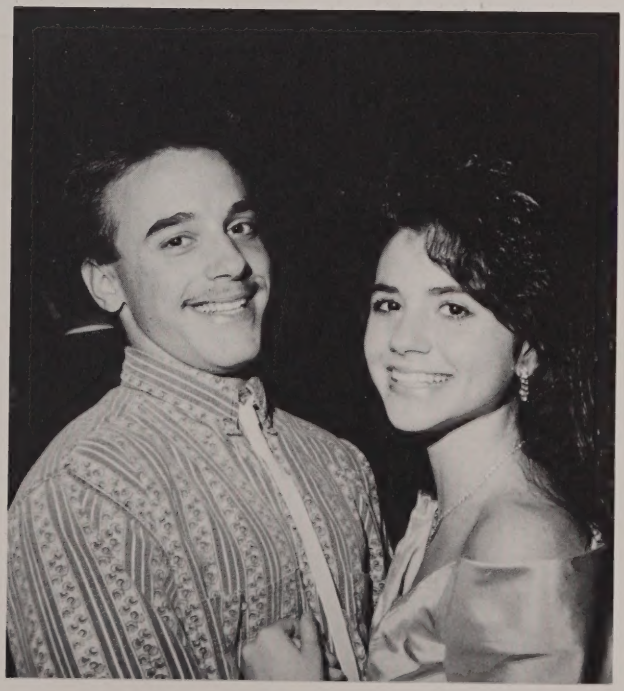
VICTORY DANCE

Everyone looked good at this year's semi-formal. As the music played and the couples danced as the flashes of cameras lit the room like fireworks. The courts consisted of freshman Stephanie Boudreau, sophomores Heather Lantz and Megan Geotis, juniors Marie Keegan, Vicki Manion and Kristen Geanis, seniors Tara Lamontagne, Nicki Linde, Tina Mezzoni and queen Heidi Chauvin. The night progressed and the memories were made, adding a nice "Final Touch."



EVERYTHING I DO . . .

They make a nice couple . . . but a nice couple of what?

Uhm, Kerrie you're stepping on my foot!

Hey, is he standing on a phone book?

I DO IT FOR YOU

Someone tell them they're going the wrong way!

Oh no, we're gonna hit, we're gonna hit . . . look out!

"Cool beans! Beck look at the camera!"

C'mon guys, 1, 2, 3 . . . "You've lost that lovin' feelin' . . .

THE PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1992

It was a cool night when I drove away from U-Mass after having laser surgery. I picked Kim up and then headed for Webster. We decided to take the back road from Oxford because it was quicker. The music was up, the windows were down, and everything was fine. We came to an intersection and Kim shuddered remembering how dangerous the intersection was. I looked both ways and it was clear so I pulled out. Suddenly Kim screamed, "Jill, look out! A car!" A car traveling at 40 mph with no lights plowed into the passenger side, and everything went black.

I woke up, after what seemed like minutes, and looked around. All was quiet, and I was alone. Where was Kim? I knew I had to find her. I bet she was taken to a hospital. I decided to try and find out what was going on. I started to walk toward Dudley. It was windy and things were blowing around me. A newspaper page hit my leg and I picked it up. The headline read "ROBERT SMITH DIES IN PLANE CRASH, JIM SMITH OF CHARLTON, MASS. ASKED TO FILL IN." When did all this happen, I wondered? Then I looked again to see what date was on the paper. I screamed. It was September 28, 2011! I had been in my car for twenty years. Now I really have to find Kim. I put the paper in my pocket when a car pulled up behind me and missed me by inches. It was Steve Leonard and David Tomasko. I told them the story and they let me jump in. Flying down the road at 100 mph, I wasn't surprised when a cop pulled us over. Officer Jason Powers took Steve's license and registration and made me get into the squad car. I turned to see who was in the back and was greeted by Heather Hade, Tony Branczyk, and Danielle Piasta, all on their way to the station. I told Jay to drop me off in Webster. Maybe I would find someone who could help me. He dropped me off in front of McDonald's. I looked around and there was Dawn Gliniecki sitting in her white station wagon. I went inside. Chris Schuyler and Jason Raymond were ordering ten Happy Meals for their five sets of twins. Jason Cloutier and Kristen Brown hurried to give them their order and quiet the kids down. No one could help me here, so I turned and smacked into John Bennett, employee of the month, mopping the floor. After apologizing I started to leave and I passed Adam Kurpiel, Derek Cjabaszewski, and Magdelina Frankowski on their way inside to tease John. I walked across Main Street and heard the screech of brakes. A limo driver, who I recognized as John Karlon, chucked me the bird. Jessica Paire came from the back of the limo and asked me to join her. I took her up on the offer and was introduced to her husband Matt Jordan, who was the wealthiest man in America since Donald Trump, due to his take over of the Nike shoe company. I turned and saw a television and started changing the channels. I stopped on channel three at a talk show. The owner of the Red Sox, Josh Pahigian, was arguing with Tara D'Ambra about whether the Red Sox should or shouldn't be a coed team. I flipped the channel and watched the Erin Vancellette Cooking Show for a few minutes. I changed the station again and watched the Michelle Stevens/Arsenio Hall Show. Michelle was arguing with Chris Stelmach, Mike Resener, and Bill Bransky over which kind of ice cream was better; vanilla or chocolate. I switched stations and listened as the President of the U.S., David Johnson, announced that the new legal drinking age was 13. I decided to try one more station. It was The People's Court, with the honorable Joel Raymond presiding. The defendant, Kristy Leduc with her lawyer Marc Blouin, was denying she had ever tried to hit the plaintiff, Cathy Moroz with a lawn dart. Cathy's lawyer, Melinda Alden, was holding her own. The jury: Lori Szaban, Julie Marsh, Adrienne Levesque, Beth Jensen, Toby Frechette, Shawn Kennedy, Karen Miller, Paul Voltz, Fred Daniels (Boomer), Christina Sequeira, Brian Pecore, Jodi Fox, and Kristina Heale couldn't decide, but they all had a good laugh. The limo turned into a gas station and pulled up next to Pete Szydlik in his Rolls Royce. We talked to him while Scott Lotter pumped our gas. I was getting hungry so I asked John to drop me off at Park-N-Shop. Inside I was greeted by Miguel Nieves, who was collecting bottles. After grabbing a bag of Sonya Chauvin and Tara Lamontagne's Illegal Recipe Cookies, I got in line. Sandi Sullivan was in front of me with seven kids. It was then when I realized I had forgotten to get something to drink. I walked to the dairy section to get some milk. When I looked at the carton I saw my old friend Kim Kunsaites on the side. She was probably lost in her own back yard, I thought to myself. On my way back to the line I realized I didn't have any money, it was all in my car. I saw Lynn Kondrotowitcz, Heather Reardon, and Jen Kravetz all stocking the shelves. I turned to walk down aisle three and saw Scott Langlois. I asked him if he had any money, but he was broke also. I started to put my things back because I had no money to buy them with. On my way back to the dairy section I saw this huge hunk of a guy buying Weight Gain and noticed that it was Robert McCrillis. He gave me some money and I returned to the express lane, where Sherri Mayotte was the cashier. I paid for my things and left. I felt so lost as I put the change in my pocket. As I pulled my hand out of my pocket I also pulled out the newspaper I found earlier. I took it out and opened it to the engagement page. "Look at all these people!" They were all people who I graduated with. Jason Resener & Sarah Burlingame, Greg Lewandowski & Melissa Millette, Jason Harrison & Heidi Chauvin, and Stewart Saine (Scuppy) & Layla Hey (the paper read that they had been married to each other before, then divorced, then married, then divorced, and they are trying it again). Still in the engagements were Paul Lundquist & Stacy Garrand, Wendy Stone and Jessica Bond who were engaged to a set of twins and were having a double wedding. In another section I read about the Grand Opening's of Maryann Kaskewicz's cat resort "Nip's Kitty Motel", and a store owned by Dianna Emond, Melody Coombes, Erin Dalbec and Adrianne Gauthier called "Instruments-R-Us", all the proceeds go to save the animals. In the Sports section Nova Crevier, Rique Polletta, Scott Lawrence, and Jochen Stellbrink help the U.S. win the World Cup of soccer. Elaine Mongeon, Janet Knight, and Jessica McMath will all run for the U.S. in the 2012 Olympics. In another article the topic was Lisa Bohenko, who just created her own Nintendo game. The pictures were taken by Robert Ryan, Mike Szymczak, and Jim Besse.

It was getting late. I threw down the paper and started walking toward Hubbard, the only hospital I knew around here. I passed by some new shops on my way. There was a hair salon owned by Nicole McDonald and next door was another hair salon owned by Heather Monahan. I knew there must be some competition there, remembering the tie between them for best hair in the 1992 yearbook. Inside one of the salon's Rebecca Borden and Mary Davieu were getting their hair cut. Next door, in Tarrah Filo's "House of Fashion", Luis Rivera and Corey Mailloux were looking for today's hottest fashions, while Lenore Millette was starting her own. A few stores down was Sherri Demers and Teresa Jaskolska's Book Store. I went inside and flipped through some books: Tim Nelson's gossip book Go Ask Timmy; Brian Zaleski and Nicole Linde's book 10 Days To A Firmer Behind; Stacey Malia's book I Laugh Alone; Steve Bergin, John Arnott, and Jason Langway's Guide To Harassing Rug Rats; Erin Lavigne's I Hate The Class Of 1992 poem book; and Kerry Kubiak's How To Graduate From High School. I picked up the latest Guiness Book of World Records, on the front page was the newest record of driving a car across the world in reverse. To my surprise the record was set by Cindy Jones. On my way out I saw Joe Simone buying How To Fix Your Mustang and Simone Pike buying 30 Ways To Leave Your Lover.

Outside I saw Steve Belanger leaving the parking lot in a fire truck. I ran after him and asked him for a lift to the hospital. I jumped on the back and we took off. As we passed Papa Gino's I waved to Becky Coonerludt, who was waiting on Christie Kiley, Robyn Marcin, Laura Wyman, Sandi Bellantoni, and Karen Zereski. About a mile down the road was the 50th anniversary of Friendly's. I heard some people singing outside to celebrate such a joyous day. They were Melissa Kijek, Taryn Perry, Ben Day, Alyssa Eaton, Candy Morin, and Greg Bussiere and they all looked enthused. I watched as Jennifer Peepas left from her shift, pushed pass the chorus, and took off for graduate school at Quinnsigamond.

We screeched closer and closer to the hospital and I saw Piotr Grusczecki helping Kathy Cullen with a flat tire. The truck started to slow down. We pulled into Hubbard's driveway. James Donald handed Steve a parking ticket (I have no idea why he was even going to stay at the hospital, maybe there were no fires to fight today), but I had already jumped off and was running toward the front door. I slid past Pam Hill and Alissa Slein, who had just come from visiting Amy Labossiere after her over-dose on cheerios. I walked in and was greeted by Eric Reilly, Jay Kalwarczyk, and Mike Leo, who themselves still adorned in football uniforms, were waiting for Brian Gelineau to get the mouthpiece removed from his throat. Hilary Sterritt and Tina Mezzoni were keeping everyone's spirits up during the whole ordeal with their constant cheering. I had to find somebody who could help me. Then I wondered why Kim would be at the hospital twenty years later, but seeing how I was already there I might as well check the front desk for information on her. Maybe she was here on September 28, 1991 and I could go from there. I saw Renee Cooper and Jen Blanchard in the gift shop. They couldn't help me. I saw the secretary at the front desk and walked over to her. It was Sharon Faille. I asked her if there was a Kim Snow anywhere in the hospital. She went to check the records. With my luck I would never find Kim. Christina Delage walked by on her way to examine a virus in the lab. Dawn Krupinski was behind her, as her apprentice. Sharon came back and told me that Kim was in recovery because she was poisoned from eating a creme doughnut. She was in room 223. I started down the hall to find an elevator and on my way I saw Steve Grondine, who cut his hand at Dwyers and had just received stitches. I pressed the button on the elevator. As it opened James Angell, Tracey Ryder, and Tracey Hicks were coming out. I got in, but before the door closed, Jason Bernier rushed in on his way to perform surgery. I got out on the second floor. I passed a sign that said Psychology and as I looked in, I saw Michele Gallo working with Jen Menard, who was suffering from apology complex. On my way down the hall, I wasn't paying attention to where I was going and I went into room 233 by mistake. Konrad Trybulski was lying in traction because he was hit in the leg by Urszula Ucher during a friendly game of frisbee. I apologized for disturbing him and on my way out I passed physical therapist, Nicole Faford, on her way in to help Konrad. When I found room 223 I knocked on the door and entered when I heard somebody tell me to come in. I went inside and there was Kim Snow and John Larson. "Jill, come look at my engagement ring. Jill, come here, Jill, Jill . . . Jill, Jill Chalifoux. Wake up! Are you okay? Wake up." I looked up. I was in my car, which was stuck to a little blue chevette. Becky Barnes was shaking me. "Jill, are you alright. I didn't even see you. I'm sorry, I didn't realize my lights were off. I'm sorry, my insurance will cover it."

I looked beside me and Kim was just as confused as I was. "Nice job, Beck! The driving is getting better."

As we got out of the car I told Kim and Becky about my dream. They laughed and I wondered what we really would be doing in twenty years. Oh well, I thought, some things never change and hopefully some things never will.

Good Luck in the real future.

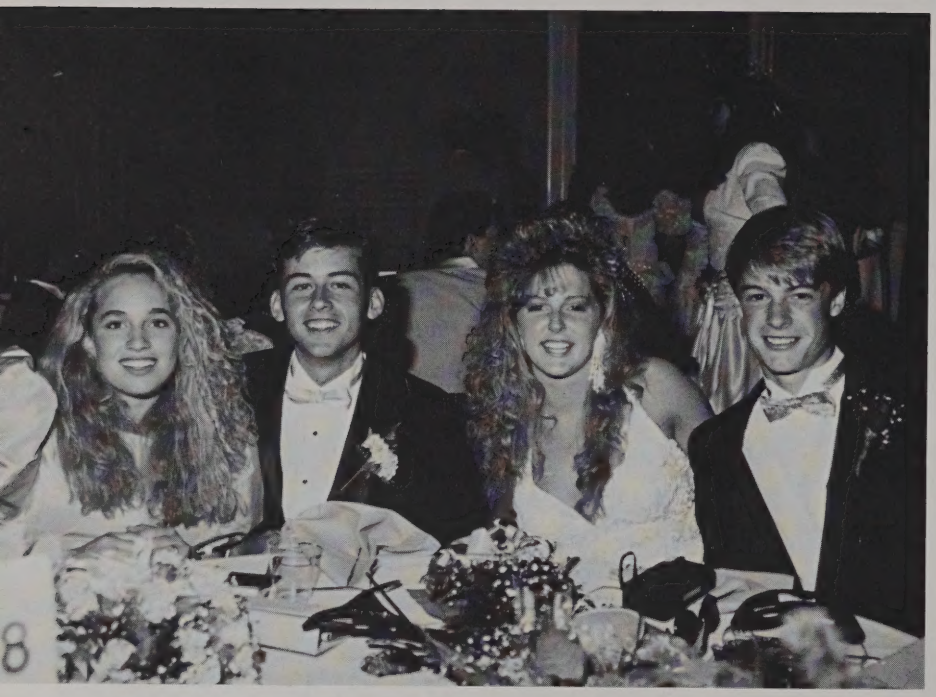
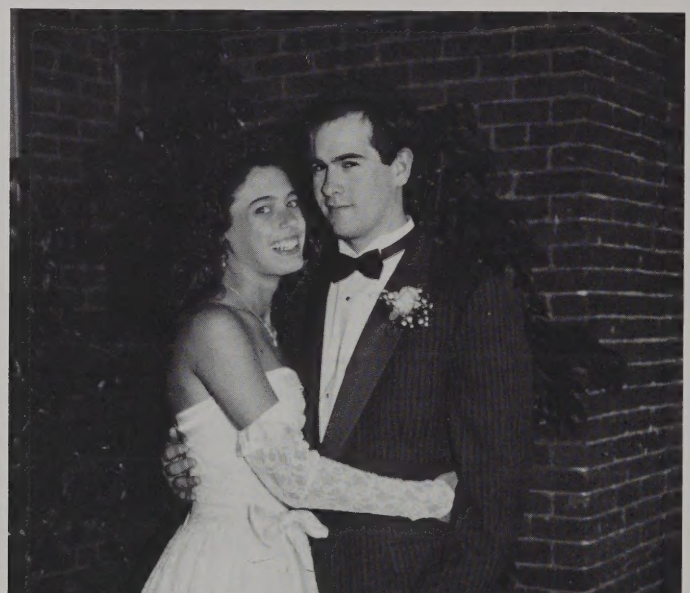
PROM '91





The prom last year was an evening to remember. The theme Midnight Masquerade provided an air of mystery for all. Amber Messina and Russ Jennings were selected king & queen. The court was made up of Melanie Jankowski, Darcy Langevin, Tiffany Fournier, Heather Monahan, Sandy Sullivan, and Missy Kijek. The Prom song was "I'll Never Let You Go."

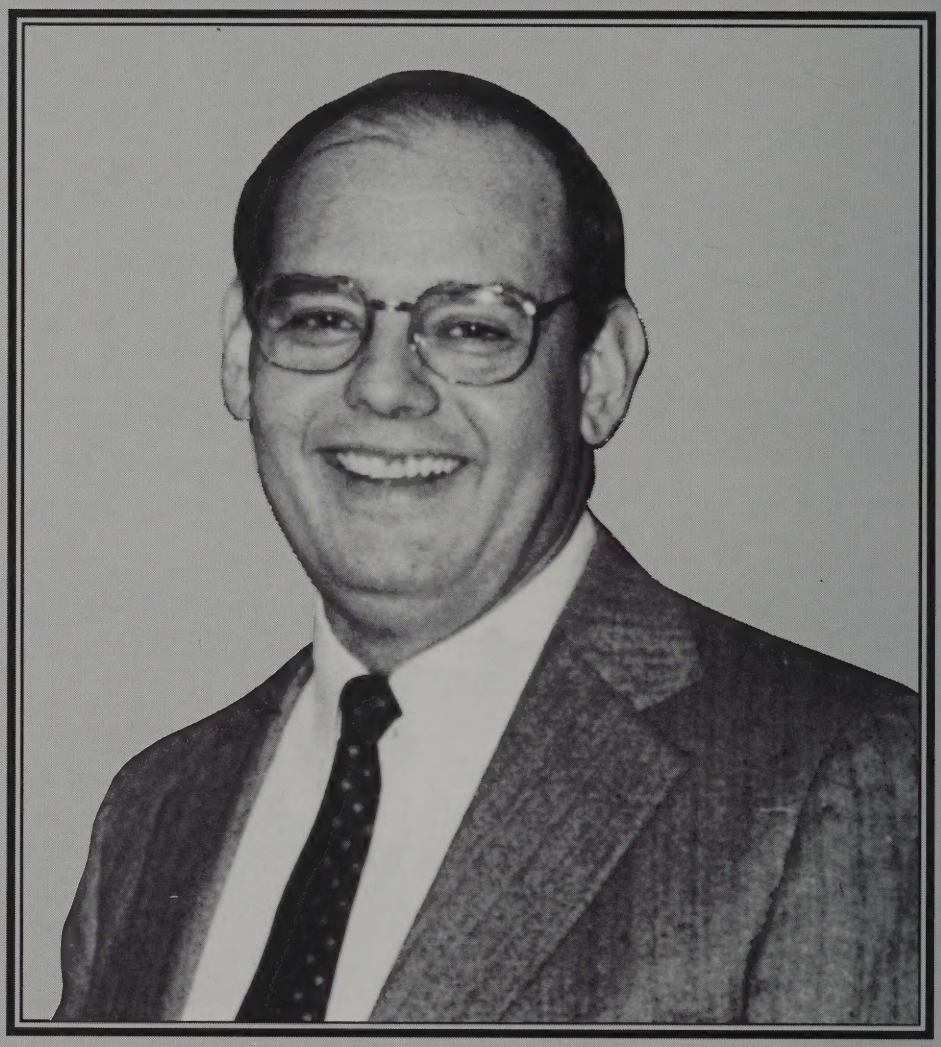
Dedication



Dedication is a word most appropriate for the person selected this year. We seniors dedicate this year's yearbook to Mr. Richard Carmignani our School Superintendent. Mr. Carmignani's commitment to education spans 12 years of distinguished service to secondary schools and young people. The senior class respects the leadership of a man who has demonstrated both professional and personal achievement that is a model to us all. He has helped find the difficult answers necessary to maintain our schools while keeping a flexible attitude toward inevitable changes that a school district must face as we approach the 21st century.

Mr. Carmignani contributes boundless energy, determination and commitment to our education. These are the qualities of a gentleman to whom we are proud to say thank you.

Mr. Carmignani plays many different roles within the community. Whether a baseball coach, district representative, or graduation speaker; he performs each role equally well.

YEARBOOK STAFF

This year's yearbook required many long hours of hard work to publish. Thanks to those few members who devoted all their time and effort to produce a quality yearbook. The yearbook couldn't have been made without our yearbook advisor, Mr. Prouty's help and patience. We thank all the advisors, coaches, and students who assisted in writing copy and identifying people in photographs.

Student Council Senior High

The nominated and elected members of the Senior High Student Council have kept themselves very busy this year organizing and working at many school and community activities. Members, under the guidance of Mr. Greenwood, have organized a new student program during the summer, run the concession stand during football games, sponsored the yearly V-Dance, and directed an annual community blood drive. Mr. Greenwood and the Senior Student Council, donate much of their time and effort to Shepherd Hill's student body and deserve to be commended for thir leadership abilities, and endless dedication.

The Junior High Student Council is one of the first groups that allows young seventh and eighth graders to become actively involved in their school and experience what it's like to be a leader.

The students of the Council, after being elected in the beginning of each year by their fellow classmates, get the chance to arrange such events as dances and ice skating trips for the Junior High.

Mrs. Kokocinski, their advisor, gives much of her time and should be recognized for not only having served as an advisor but as a friend and guide who helped to put them on the path to becoming young adults.

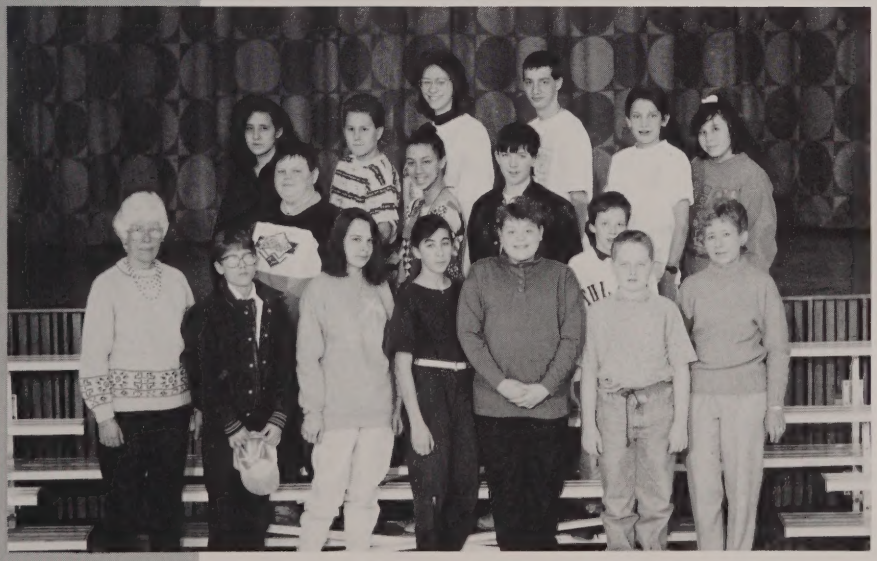
Audio — Visual Club

C. Besse, T. Nickerson, A. Donais, M. Hartland, T. Chicoine

The A.V. club assists in the distribution of audio-visual equipment. Often they can be found bringing TV's and VCR's to classrooms. They also help to make small repairs when needed on various other technical appliances. They volunteer for this during their own study time, and are of great help. Thank you for all you do.

Library Club

Most people do not realize the extra effort and time that these students dedicate to our school, making the library neat, clean and easily accessible by checking out, rearranging books and doing all types of assorted jobs. It is their voluntary service that gives our librarians time to help students and relax from the hustle and bustle of a regular school day.



Mrs. Faille, P. Chicoine, J. Surprise, J. Ford E. McGovern, M. Karlowicz, Mrs. Wilson, M. Hartland, S. Diani, T. Nickerson, R. Kelly, T. Hammond, R. Keller, S. Jacbert, C. Besse, T. Kimball, A. Jyringi

Anthology

Anthology started as a small publication of one English class using less than twenty pages and has escalated into a major publishing source for grades seven through twelve. Consisting of over one hundred pages, it takes staff members three months to compile and complete the materials entered. Prizes are awarded for best short story and also for best poem.

Front row: J. Miller, K. Heale, N. Fidyk, J. Brown. Back row: J. Dembowski, L. Burlingame, M. Gatzke, & K. Kiley.

Jr. High Newspaper

Under the direction of Mrs. Salek and Mr. Sherry seventh and eighth grade students publish a newspaper "On Top Of The HILL." The publication is in its fourth year of existence and its goal is to provide Jr. High students with informative and recreational reading.

Front: R. Kelly, M. Kareuwicz, B. King. Middle: E. Swenson, L. King, L. Nickerson, K. Morril, E. Ciras. Back: K. Kubiak, B. Keohane.

This was the most important year ever in the debate club's history. The club advanced from an intramural debate group to participation in regional debates. They were successful early on, capturing a number of prizes. Thank you Mr. Chaplain for your diligent work.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society consists of approximately 45 Juniors and Seniors. Members are inducted at the end of their sophomore, junior or senior year. Selection is based on qualities such as scholarship, service, leadership and character. Throughout the year, the N.H.S. participates in such programs as the Junior High Student of the Week, the Thanksgiving Food Drive and Rent-a-Student day. The Junior High Student of the Week program is used to find those Junior High students who possess the qualities the N.H.S. looks for in its members and encourage them to continue working hard. At Thanksgiving, the N.H.S. collects money and canned goods to prepare holiday baskets for the needy families of the area which are delivered to their homes by the members. Also, the N.H.S. presents a scholarship to a graduating senior.

Ski Club

The Ski Club is a group of 85 students in grades 7-12 that share a common interest in skiing. In January and February the club takes six trips to Mt. Wachusett in Princeton Mass on Tuesday evenings. The students in the club enjoy the Tuesday night trips. It's a good illustration how kids can have good clean fun. The club is planning a special trip this year to Statton Mtn. in Vermont and a pizza party.

The Foreign Language Club attempts to increase the students' cultural awareness by sponsoring a trip to a foreign country. This trip gives the students an opportunity to practice the language that they have been studying in the classroom, to taste the foreign cuisine, to manage foreign currency, to see the most important sights of the country and to experience a life in a country other than their own.

Athletic Trainers

Mr. Sendowski has been the athletic trainer since the school opened in 1973. This is the second year Kristen and Robbie have been student athletic trainers. Being a student trainer is a large responsibility especially for away football games that they cover alone. Both have shown much improvement in their wrapping of injuries and injury recognition. Mr. Sendrowski feels that next year they will be able to allow him to be a spectator leaving the work to them.

Varsity Math Team

There was a tremendous turnout for the math teams this year. The varsity math team has 25 members and the freshman math team has 15 members.

Both teams compete in meets in Division C of the Worcester County Math League (four meets for varsity and three meets for freshman).

Students against driving drunk is exactly that: an organization made up of students to alert classmates and local communities about the dangers of drinking and driving. Throughout the school year, S.A.D.D. sponsors many activities in hopes of preventing needless deaths that occur every year.

S.A.D.D. encourages you to sign a 'Contract for Life' with your parents or friends. Choose a designated driver whenever you go out. This will guarantee that you will arrive home safely and most importantly - ALIVE.

Peer Counseling

Peer counselors volunteer much of their free time in both study halls and after school to help students in need. Volunteers start a long training process so that they can learn how to deal with and tutor students who need their help. Peer counselors also participate in a trip to the Charlton and Dudley Intermediate schools to talk to the future seventh grade students, answering many of their questions about high school life.

The Senior High Choir, directed by Mrs. Galli, kept the tradition of excellence. Every year the Chorus competes at the Musical Carousel Festival. The Chorus performs at Shepherd Hill at least twice a year. This year they participated in a trip to Washington D.C. and Virginia in April. We wish good luck to the Chorus and congratulations to the Music Parents Association for putting their continuous effort to raise money for the Chorus.

The Senior Show Choir started seven years ago. This past year they earned their first gold medal in a competition in Connecticut. They work very hard for all their achievements, performing at community events, festivals and competitions. This year they are taking a trip to Virginia and Washington. A small step, considering last year they took a trip to England. They are able to boast of having approximately 30 singers and dancers and an eight member pit band. They play music ranging from hard rock to classical, doing a great job at it all. Congratulations Senior Show Choir!

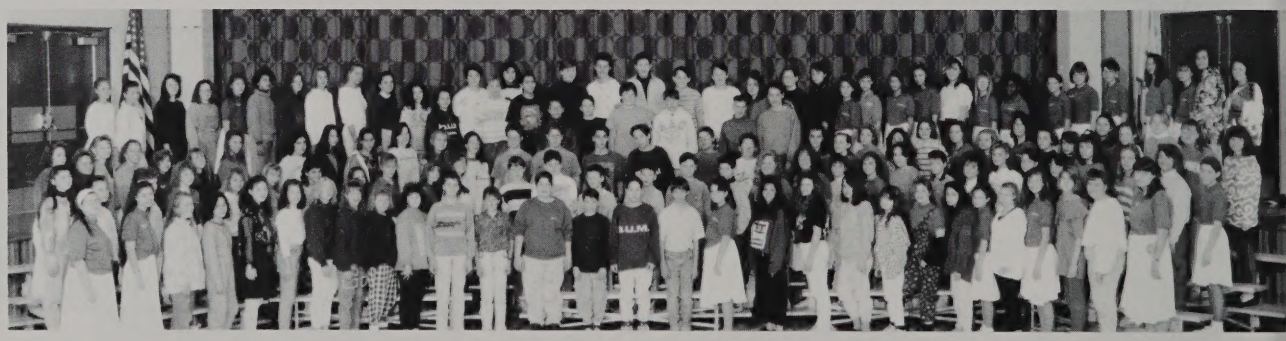
Junior Show Choir

"Lights, Camera, Action!" is the Shepherd Hill Junior High Show Choir. This extra-curricular group is open to all Junior High students. They participate annually in the Central Massachusetts Show Choir Festival and Musical Carousel Festivals where they have earned four consecutive "Superior" ratings. The group is co-directed by members of the Senior Show Choir. This year student directors are Jason Cloutier, Melissa Kijek, Beth Casavant, Greg Bussiere and Jen Kallgren (not pictured).

Junior Chorus



The Junior Chorus is comprised of singers in grades seven and eight. This two hundred member group performs annually in the Christmas and Spring concerts. In addition the Junior Chorus performs an annual musical. The group has performed in the American Choral Directors Association Junior High Music Festival and Musical Carousel Festivals where they have consistently earned high ratings.

The past season, the marching band performed at competitions and football games. Their many hours of diligent work and dedication helped them achieve a "gold medal" rating at the M.I.C.A. finals competition. Assisting the students this year were director Greg Stewart, assistant director Betsy Brogna, drum major Adrienne Gauthier, guard instructor Linda Saad, and percussion instructor Todd Morrison. This year's show included solo's in each of the pieces. "St. Louis Blues" featured a saxophone solo by Dianna Emond and a vibraphone solo by Erica Pennella. "Wishing (You Were Some How Here Again)" involved a trumpet solo by Matt Day while "Canto Del Viento" featured Carolyn Boyce, Paula Sendrowski and Matt Day all on trumpet.

Stage Band

The Shepherd Hill Stage Band is a jazz group under the direction of Greg Stewart and Matt Power. In May of 1991, the group competed at the Festival of Music in Virginia Beach, Virginia where they competed against four other high school jazz ensembles. They returned home with titles of best jazz band overall, best trumpet line and best saxophone line. It just goes to show that a little hard work goes a long way.

The winter percussion group at Shepherd Hill has had four very successful years. In the 1990-91 season they acquired a "gold medal" rating at the NESBA final competition with the musical arrangement of "Jupiter." In April 1991 they took their Show on the road to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania for a National Music Educators Conference (NMEC), and down to Virginia Beach for "Festivals of Music." This year's 1991-92 season promises to be just as exciting. The drum line and mallet ensemble will compete at NESBA competitions with selections from Bernstein's "Mass." They will also attend another NMEC conference in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania with Thom Hannum.

The instructors for this season are T. Hannum, J. Hoover, T. Morrison, M. Power and seniors D. Emond, A. Gauthier, M. Combs, C. Delage, E. Dalbec and F. (Boomer) Daniels.

The Rams came into the season winless from the previous year. The 1991 Rams got a real rough start, losing the first four games. The Auburn Rockets in game five fell 20-9 for the Hills first victory. The Rams were to fall two more times but turned the season around mid-season. The Rams finished strong with the record of 4-6-1 to begin the 1992 season with a winning attitude. This years team was lead by Tri-Captains Brian Gelineau, Brian Zaleski, and Jeffrey McNamara. Next years team will be lead by Captains Jeffrey McNamara, Craig Becker, and 1991 Most Valuable Player Derek Koziak.

VARSITY

The Varsity Ball Team rebounded in 1991 to a second place in the league and thereby qualified for the district tournament.

In the districts the boys defeated Minuteman Vocational 19-0 and lost to Worcester Vocational 10-2. Highlights of the season were beating Auburn and Bartlett and qualifying for the districts.

Steve Wagner and Brian Sullivan were team captains.

BASKETBALL

The Rams from day one put their best foot forward to meet the challenge of the next opponent. It would be easy for someone to say that they wanted to quit but when it got tough these men met the challenge. Their record certainly did not measure their character. But their ability to put each game behind them and get ready for the next game showed character and integrity.

GOLF TEAM

The 1991 Rams, once again, continued the winning tradition set by previous Ram teams. Leadership provided by Seniors, Captains Scott Anderson, Bill Borowski, and Derek Sanders and fine play by newcomers Cory Geanis, Randy Gryzelecki, and Jon & Derek Graves kept the Ram golfer's competitive and successful throughout the entire season.

The 1991 Rams were a potent force in the Border Conference sharing the Championship with Bartlett. The 14 and 4 team was powered by All Stars: Ricky Polletta at number one singles and Lenny Zurowski at number two, while third singles (Jeff Niemiec) and first doubles (John Bennett/Pete Beck) had solid winning records. Much of the season's success was due to surprising 17-1 second doubles team of Nathan Brinker and Matt Bennett. The starters were backed up by a young but talented group: C. Dibonaventura, J. Galante, J. Greenseid, M. Howard, M. Mandelenakis, J. Mrazik, and B. Tokarz. The Rams will hope again to rule the courts in 1992 as the entire team returns.

The track team record for last season was 6-5. The girls tied for second at the league meet. Two new records were set by Kelly Cyr with a triple jump of 32'8" and a 400 meter relay record with the team of Beth Lauritsen, Elaine Mongeon, Charlene Jankowski, and Michelle Paradise with a time of 54.3 seconds. Kelly Cyr has been the top scorer for the last three seasons. Charlene Jankowski had a personal best in the long jump of 15'2". She is the second girl in the history of the Hill to jump at least 15'.

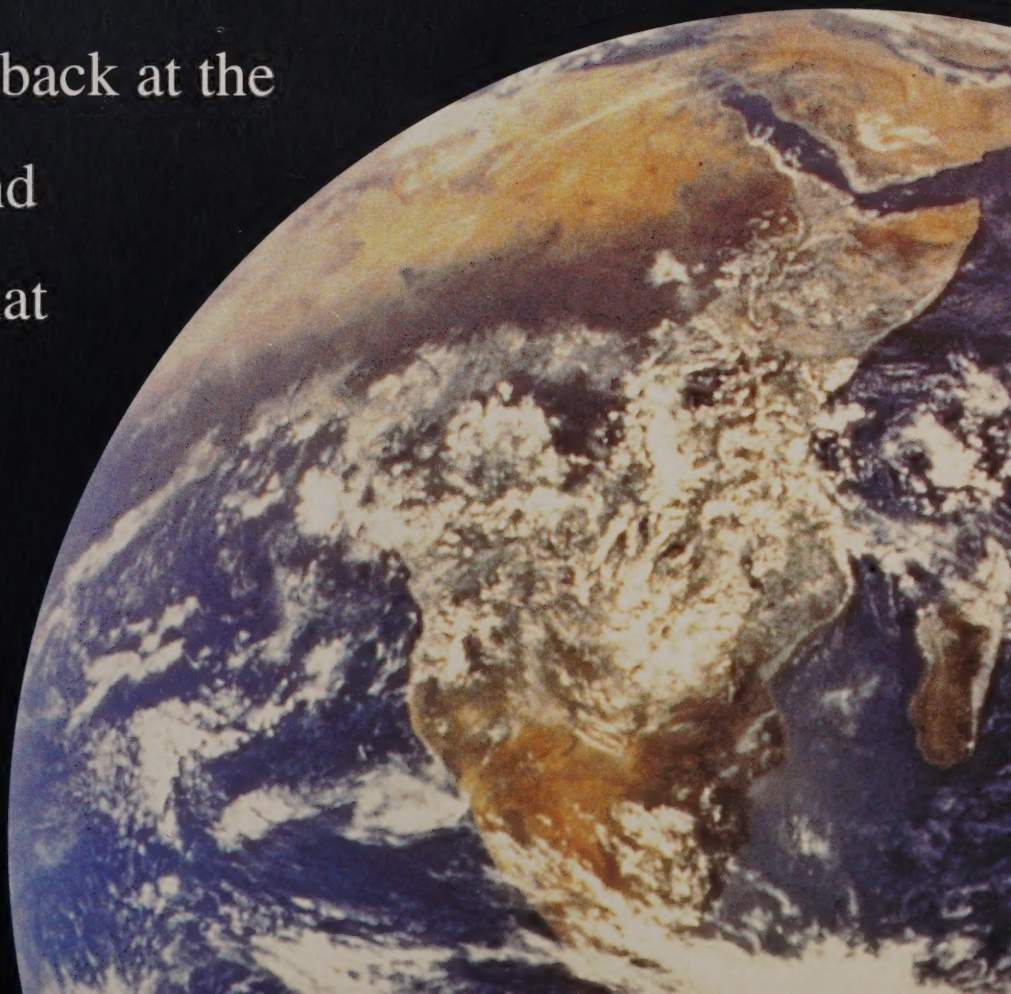
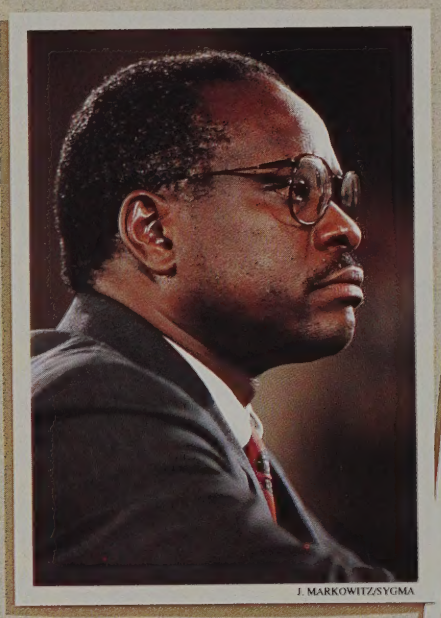
Looking back at the events and people that have shaped our world.



HERFF JONES

PEOPLE AND PERSPECTIVES

Clarence Thomas was preparing to be sworn in as history's second black Supreme Court Justice when Anita Hill alleged he had sexually harassed her. After three days of testimony, Thomas was confirmed. • America was stunned as it watched the brutal beating of Rodney King by four Los Angeles police officers. The assault of the 25 year old black man was videotaped by an amateur photographer. • William Kennedy Smith was accused of raping a young girl in Palm Beach, Florida. Jurors only took 77 minutes to return a verdict of "not-guilty." • Biosphere 2 was plagued with controversy. Following rumors of fraud and deception, it was questioned whether the project was an experiment of science or business. • Former heavyweight champion Mike Tyson was charged with one count of rape, two counts of deviate sexual conduct, and one count of confinement. Tyson was found guilty on three counts.



J. MARKOWITZ/SYGMA

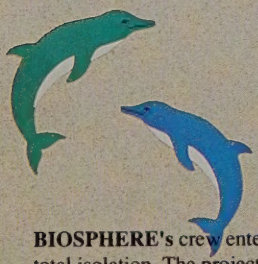
CLARENCE THOMAS decribes the Supreme Court Confirmation Hearings as a "high-tech lynching."

ANITA HILL testifies to the Senate Judiciary Committee. Polls reveal a majority of American men and women do not believe her story.

R. MAIMAN/SYGMA

KTLA/SYGMA

RODNEY KING is beaten by four Los Angeles police officers while 12 other officers stand watching.



BIOSPHERE's crew enters a life of total isolation. The project is criticized for having little or no scientific value.

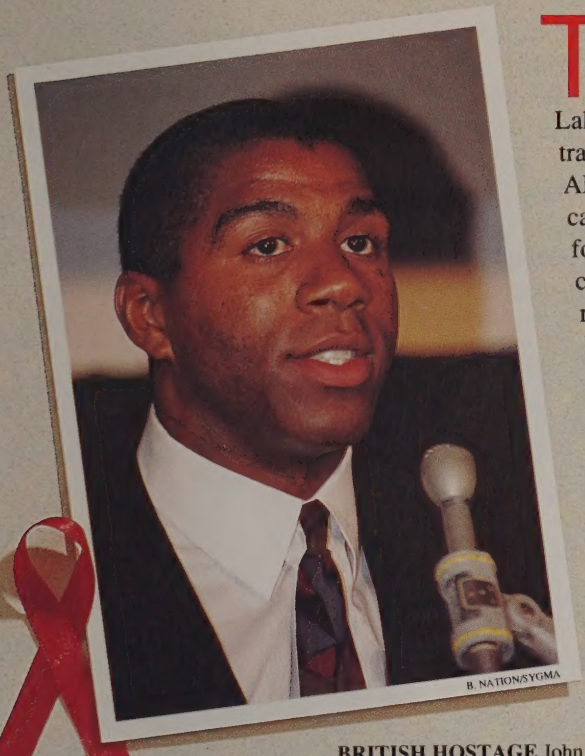
J. WALKER/SYGMA

WILLIAM KENNEDY SMITH is found "not-guilty" of rape. Kennedy's defense cost an estimated $1 million.

Thursday, November 14, 1991, Earvin "Magic" Johnson announced his retirement from the Los Angeles Lakers after testing positive for the HIV virus. Determined to turn tragedy into opportunity, Magic pledged to become a spokesman for AIDS research. • In the past year, eleven hostages were released from captivity in Lebanon, including six Americans. Terry Anderson, held for 2,455 days, was the last American hostage released. He was held captive longer than any other hostage. Two German relief workers remained in captivity. • The nation's attention turned to Hawaii on December 7, as we marked the 50th Anniversary of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. • Milwaukee serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer pled guilty by reason of insanity on 15 counts of murder. After a search of his apartment, police found 11 dismembered bodies, seven skulls, and a heart in the refrigerator. Dahmer was found sane on all counts and sentenced to 937 years in prison.



B. NATION/SYGMA

MAGIC JOHNSON becomes a National Spokesman for AIDS. "Here I am saying it can happen to anybody, even me, Magic Johnson." Many celebrities wore red ribbons to promote AIDS awareness.

M. ATTAR/SYGMA

BRITISH HOSTAGE John McCarthy, with his father and the British ambassador, celebrates his release from captivity.

TERRY ANDERSON is the final American hostage released.

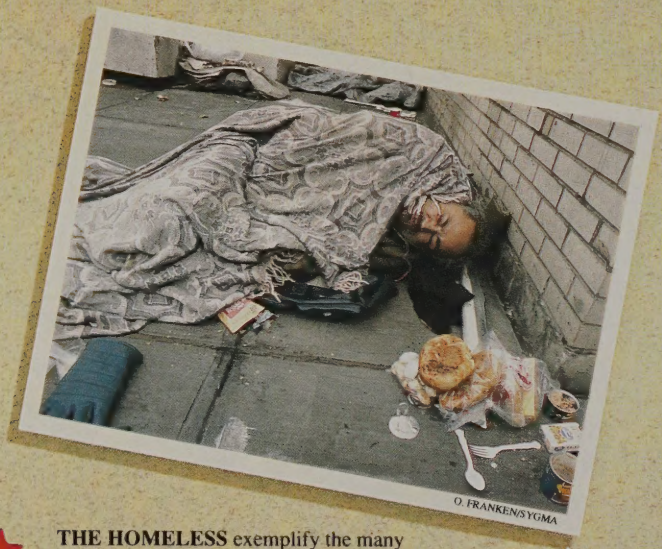
YOUR VIEWS ON NEWS

What do you believe was the most memorable or controversial issue of the year?

NATIONAL REVIEW

After the Gulf War, President George Bush's approval rating of 89% was one of the highest in history. However, domestic problems, especially the economy, caused his rating to drop as low as 44% before the New Hampshire Primary. The people of that state sent the President a message with their vote. While President Bush won, his opponent, Pat Buchanan, received over 40% of the vote. • Former Massachusetts Senator, Paul Tsongas, led the Democratic candidates in New Hampshire. Former California Governor, Jerry Brown, came from last place in New Hampshire to tie Tsongas in the Maine caucuses. • The Democrats waited for "Super Tuesday" to determine a clear-cut presidential contender. • Last year, 25 million people were unemployed at some time and the number of homeless Americans grew at an alarming rate. • In 1991, retailers experienced the lowest sales growth in three decades. • After the initial elation about the Gulf War victory, some Americans came to feel that the war ended too soon and Saddam Hussein still posed a threat. In November of 1991, the last of the 714 burning Kuwaiti oil wells was capped off as the people of Kuwait struggled to rebuild their homeland.



O. FRANKEN/SYGMA

THE HOMELESS exemplify the many people suffering from the longest recession since the Great Depression of the 1930s.

A. TANNENBAUM/SYGMA

U.S. AND ALLIED FORCES liberate Kuwait. Hundreds of burning oil wells, sabotaged by the Iraqis, take 10 months to extinguish.

I. WYMAN/SYGMA

ACCORDING TO POLITICAL STRATEGISTS, George Bush's international leadership is the cornerstone of his re-election campaign.

J. BOURG/GAMMA LIAISON

FIVE OF THE MEN who are in the race for the Democratic nomination: Senator Bob Kerrey of Nebraska, Senator Tom Harkin of Iowa, former California Governor Jerry Brown, Governor Bill Clinton of Arkansas, and former Massachusetts Senator Paul Tsongas.

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

In August 1991, Communist hard-liners attempted to overthrow Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev in a military coup. Resisted by supporters of reform, the coup failed, but weakened Gorbachev's position. Soon thereafter, Gorbachev resigned and the Soviet Union dissolved. Russian President Boris Yeltsin, along with the leaders of 10 other former Soviet republics, formed a Commonwealth of Independent States. Yeltsin promised to accelerate market-driven economic reforms, but the lives of people did not improve quickly enough to prevent food shortages and homelessness. Muscovites flocked to the streets to sell their personal belongings to help pay for food and clothing. • Despite George Bush's aggressive trade stand with Japan, United States exports were not expected to be much affected.
